

is hosting the Human Resources Summit for the fourth time

The Human Resources Summit 2004

will take place on 6-8 December 2004
in Grand Hotel Huis ter Duin, Noordwijk aan Zee, the Netherlands.

The fourth annual HR European Summit is an exclusive gathering that brings together leading HR executives with a select and diversified group of leading Solution Providers to address vital industry issues. Within a focused and professional environment, the HR Summit 2004 will seamlessly integrate one-to-one business meetings with informal networking. Qualified, invitation only Delegates will meet with Solution Provider representatives via pre-scheduled and tailored one-to-one business meetings. Evening and free-time activities will offer an unparalleled and more informal scope for establishing new business relationships and networks.

Speaker Programme

The HR 2004 Summit Conference Program will tackle the most pressing challenges faced by today's HR Executives. Developed for generalists, benefits managers and varied specialists, the program delivers a great diversity of knowledge exchange opportunities geared to ensure each delegate is able to tailor a program most directly suited to their specific, individual needs. A dynamic format including case study presentations, roundtable discussions, workshops and interactive think tanks offers delegates the highest level of interaction from which to take immediately actionable strategies back to their organizations.

Attendees

will benefit from practical, cutting edge case studies, keynote presentations and discussions on pre-requested topics presented by the speakers from Ericsson Spa, JP Morgan Chase, Lloyds TSB Group, Allied Irish Banks, Association of Online Recruiters (AOLR) and PersonnelToday.com among others.

For more information please visit: www.hrsummit.com

The Organisers

marcus evans specialises in the research and development of strategic events for senior business executives. From our international network of 31 offices, marcus evans produces over 1000 event days a year on strategic issues in corporate finance, telecommunications, technology, health, transportation, capital markets, human resources and business improvement.

Above all marcus evans provides clients with business information and knowledge which enables them to sustain a valuable competitive advantage and makes a positive contribution to their success.

Visit us at www.marcusevans.com